Self Portrait Art Exhibit in Kentville

Often an artist must create a self portrait while studying art. Sometimes, an artist wishes to investigate a portrait technique and can't find someone who'll sit still long enough. At times, an artist simply wishes to explore their own self. Whatever the reason, most artists have a self portrait or two tucked away. For a rare glimpse at how artists see and portray themselves, visit the Designer Café in Kentville to see Self Portraits. The exhibit runs until September 12th.

The Designer Café offers the many artists in our region a relaxed venue to show their work outside of a gallery or formal exhibition. The Café shows a wide range of artworks from abstract to representational to book illustrations and outsider art. For more information, contact Deborah Nicholson at info@dnphotoworks.com or 902-582-7959 and for hours of operation, call 902-365-3322.

Shari MacLeod

Shari Macleod Studio 2414 Highway 312, River Bennett, Nova Scotia;
902.929.2292 baskets@mixedmediartists.com www.shariacleod.com

Shari first started making baskets in 1999 when she took a class at the Cape Breton Centre for Craft and Design. Since then she has been weaving up a storm and growing her business on and off the island. With both traditional and contemporary designs made primarily from hand-dyed reed and incorporating gathered objects from stones to plants, Shari's baskets are eye-catching and functional.

To see Shari's latest work, drop by the Centre's Gallery Shop at 322 Charlotte St in Sydney. <http://tiny.cc/Shari>

8. Education & Learning

Lynn Rotin is offering the fourth in her summer series of encaustic workshops on Sunday September 13. For those of you unfamiliar with the process, encaustic, a technique dating back to the ancient Greeks, is basically painting with hot wax mixed with coloured pigments. Many exciting things can be done with the medium, all of which I will demonstrate during the workshop. It's a lot of fun and takes no previous art experience or even ability. At the same it provides new challenges and rewards for the experienced artist. All materials are supplied and you will end up with four finished works ready to hang on the wall. Lunch (organic salad etc) is also provided. Cost is $125. Location: my studio in West Pennant, just past Crystal Crescent Beach, about 30 minutes from the Roundabout (former Rotary). For more details or information, please give me a call or send an e-mail.

P.S. There is also an upcoming workshop in Chester at the end of this month and I believe there are still some spaces left. I'm also planning to do one in October, others in Annapolis Royal and Inverness. If you're interested in having me come to your area, please send me a note or give me a call. I can be reached at 902-346-2018 or thestudio@eastlink.ca
